

Fertilizer Inputs CAN BE REDUCED

Check out this 5 Year Study

Nipper Farms, 1991 - 1995 Site Specific Soil Test Levels (average)

NOTE: Phosphate levels increased fairly equally from year to year while Potash levels remained relatively stable for 3 years before increasing significantly. This was the typical pattern on all Sample Specific Monitoring Areas in the 3 State area of the Study.